However, as Ford notes, the work was given at least one, and perhaps more, clandestine dramatic readings in Havana in the years following its publications. Intent to speak of the relation between literary text and world without merely falling back into pre-deconstructionist positions, she proposes a literary theory that reintegrates previously discarded concepts such as meaning and mimesis while maintaining essential deconstructionist insights concerning the openness, decenteredness and infinity of discourse, the cultural constructedness of the self, and the plurality of sign processes. Nothingsluggishabouttheseomnivores. For the first few chapters of the book it seems that Harry is leading a perfectly normal, if slightly reclusive life of quiet respectability. The appointment in early January of Aragua state governor and former Interior Minister Tareck el Aissami as vice-president is perhaps the clearest sign that hardliners now have the upper hand within the government.
